

designNJ

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE

JUNE/JULY 2014

AT HOME WITH COLOR

Architectural Trends:
Building Better

Grilling & Chilling

Made in America

$4.95 US

07>

0 09281 01916 9

1

2

3

4

Summer's here and it's time for grilling & chilling in the backyard. Enjoy the season with these new products

1

Entertain outdoors with Perlick's Signature Series appliances. Shown are 24-inch Dual-Zone outdoor refrigerator/freezer drawers and a 15-inch outdoor wine reserve. The drawers (starting at $4,100) have two independently controlled temperature zones and are deep enough to hold milk gallons and tall bottles. The wine reserve (starting at $3,000) has five full-extension shelves, holds up to 20 bottles and can be adjusted for oversized bottles. PERLICK.COM.

2

The Quick Chill Ice Bucket from Epicureanist is the first rotating ice bucket featuring color-changing LED lights and the ability to cool wine, Champagne, vodka and other beverages in just 15 minutes. Just plug it in and get the outdoor party started. $89. EPICUREANIST.COM.

3

The Gaucho Grill™ from Kalamazoo Outdoor Gourmet allows you to regulate temperatures by raising or lowering the cooking surface over a wood or charcoal fire. Sear meat for a few minutes then raise it to finish cooking. Interchangeable cooking surfaces for meat, fish or vegetables; a rotisserie; and a funnel that sends ash to a bucket below. $17,495 for built-in grill, $18,795 for freestanding grill with shelf on both sides, $21,195 for freestanding grill with shelf on one side and burner and cabinet on the other. KALAMAZOOGOURMET.COM.

4

The new line of Viking Professional Outdoor 5 Series grills (VGIQ, 54 inches is shown) is 24 inches deep and features 25,000 high-intensity BTU stainless steel grill burners designed to deliver restaurant results while resisting corrosion, a 15,000 BTU infrared rotisserie burner, stainless steel grates that conduct heat so food cooks evenly and an Easy Lift™ canopy system for easy opening. $7,099 without the stainless steel cart. Also available in 30-, 36- and 42-inch models. VIKINGRANGE.COM.