The renovated kitchen was given a classic black, white and grey palette that suits the 190s home. The new Shaker-style cabinets, classic white subway tile backsplash, marble counters and hexagonal floor tiles laid in a diamond pattern dovetail nicely with the townstone's original mouldings, but reflect the young family's relaxed modern style.

"IT'S A FANTASTIC KITCHEN, BUT IT DOESN'T GET USED THAT OFTEN BECAUSE I DON'T HAVE TIME TO COOK!"

A vintage mirror acts as a shapely frame for Wayne's whimsical Sammy Seagull illustration. The Fornasetti urn and mounted turtle shell give the fireplace vignette symmetry and an undercurrent of formality.
