INTRODUCING THE
VIKING LIMITED EDITION 7 SERIES
CAST BLACK + ROSE GOLD

LIMITED EDITION UNLIMITED ATTENTION

THE VIKING LIMITED EDITION SERIES. THERE'S NOTHING STYLE-ISH ABOUT IT.
IT'S RADICALLY CHIC. THAT'S WHY WE'RE ONLY PRODUCING 110 OF THEM.

There's a certain confidence that comes when you're not afraid to make a statement. It's with this in mind that Viking proudly introduces, for the first time in our history, a custom-designed release: the Cast Black + Rose Gold Limited Edition 7 Series Range. Designed for fellow style enthusiasts, like you.

Cloaked in Contemporary Cast Black, this is the signature design piece that will capture the attention and eyes of everyone in the room. Touches of copper-toned accents add just the right amount of shine. And because accessories always complete a look, we've tastefully etched the edition number on the control panel and added CoolLit™ LED backlighting to the knobs for a so-cool-it's-hot finish.

The kitchen is often called the heart of the home—which is all the more reason it should reflect the one-of-a-kind style that defines you. Viking's new Limited Edition Series delivers with a trendy yet timeless styled range that slides right in to your classic, contemporary kitchen. We've created a look that is runway worthy and unique—that's why our Limited Edition Series ranges have a production run of just 110 units. The perfect mix of our signature 7 Series performance and functionality with a style that is sure to impress for years to come.

Yes. People will stare. Let them enjoy the view.

INTERIOR DESIGNER

Kara Mann is known for creating interior design environments that align her backgrounds in fashion, art, and design by re-imagining the possibilities of spatial design. Mann is founder and creative director of KARA MANN, the design firm, with offices in both Chicago and Manhattan. Here's what Mann had to say about our first Limited Edition Series range:

"Ranges are taking center stage in kitchens these days. I've been finding clients who are looking to make that a design element. So this approach by Viking is amazing. The use of the copper-hued Rose Gold is definitely unique, so it's exciting to see a new material being used, moving away from the typical stainless steel. I love that it's a limited edition. That's also a bit of a trend right now—trying to find those things that are one step above, super elevated and very special, and not a lot out there in the world."

PATRICK O'CONNELL
theinnatlittlewashington.com

Patrick O'Connell pioneered a refined, regional American cuisine in the Virginia countryside long before the farm-to-table movement had a name. His Inn at Little Washington opened in a former garage in 1978 and has evolved from a simple country inn to an international culinary shrine, earning five awards from the James Beard Foundation as well as the coveted 3-Star Michelin rating in 2019. Chef O'Connell has often been referred to as "the Pope of American Cuisine."

An entrepreneur, author, cultural ambassador, and philanthropist, Chef O'Connell's passion for culinary excellence and innovation fuels his life. That's why Chef was immediately drawn to Viking's new Cast Black + Rose Gold Limited Edition range, which is installed in his personal kitchen. It's a perfect match for Chef O'Connell in technology, innovation, and style.
